No Whiskey!

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881.
Gents:—The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

The rapidity with which our national debt has been reduced has called forth admiring plaudits from the civilized world. Nothing similar is known in history. In September it was reduced $14,895,943, and for the past three months $44,794,338, this being at the rate of $180,000,000 annually.

Vote for Strotcher, and there will be no poker playing in the State House.

WHAT KILLS THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The elections of recent years have shown that there is an invincible reason why the Democratic party can never win a national victory. It is that the youth of this republic is not Democratic. The sons of Democratic fathers have grown up Republicans. So long as slavery and the war linger within the memory of the Americans, the youth of the country will continue to grow up Republicans; and slavery and the war will be remembered as long as the public school system lasts. The public schools have slain the Democratic party with the text-books. It is in vain for statesmen to declare that there were as many Democrats as Republicans in the Union army. It is in vain to affirm that the war for the preservation of the Union could not have been carried to a successful close without the assistance of the Democratic party. It is idle for philanthropy to suggest that the attitude of that party toward the war in the beginning was a humane one; that it was inspired by the higher and better wish that the cause of the conflict should be peaceably removed, and the spilling of brothers' blood by brothers' hands avoided. The Democratic party has been ideally identified with slavery and slaveholding. The Republican party is ideally identified with emancipation and the war. Therefore is the youth of the country incapable of being Democratic. Therefore the Democratic party can never win a national victory. Its old men are dying away. The boys who catch the ballots that fall from their stiffened hands are Republicans.

This fact cannot be denied. It will do no good to quarrel with it. All other causes which have operated to diminish the number of Democrats and increase the number of Republicans are insignificant beside this one tremendous and invincible fact. The curse of slavery has poisoned the blood and rotted the bone of the Democratic party. The malediction of the war has palsied its brain.

The young wife who held the babe up to kiss the father as he hurried to the top of his departing regiment has not suckled a Democrat. The weary foot of the gray grandmother, who watched the children when the wife was busy, has never rocked the cradle of Democrats. The chair that the soldier-father never came back to fill has never been climbed upon by Democrats. The old blue coat that his comrades carried back was cut up for little jackets, but not one inclosed the heart of a Democrat. The rattled musket that fell from him with his last shot became the thoughtless toy of his boys; but not a hand that played with it was the hand of a Democrat. The babe he kissed and crowed for his return, and its unwitting and unanswered notes were not from the throat of a Democrat.

The fear-soiled camp letters which the mother read aloud in the long, bitter evenings, while the boys clustered at her knees, did not fall upon the ears of Democrats. The girls' sobs, blending with the mother's weeping, did not make Democrats of their brothers. Perhaps the father had been a Democrat all his life!

The children go to school. There is not a Democrat on its benches. The history contains a picture of Abraham Lincoln—that kind and sturdy face never made a Democrat. On its simple pages, in words of one or two syllables, is told the story of his birth and death. That story never made a Democrat. In the pranks of the playground the name silences the frolicsome and makes the jolliest grave. That name never made a Democrat. In the pictures that light up the geography are the firing on Fort Sumpter and the death of Ellsworth. Those pictures never made any Democrats. The first page of history contains a representation of the surrender of Lee at Appomattox. No boy gazed on that and ever after avowed himself a Democrat.

In the higher grades the same subtle and irresistible influence is at work. The text-books contain extracts from patriots' speeches during the war. Those speeches make no Democrats. The great battles are briefly described; the narrative has no Democratic listeners. The strain of martial music runs through the readers, and that music makes no Democrats. Sketches of the great generals are given; their brave deeds arouse the enthusiasm of the lads, but there is no Democrat among them. The horrors and sufferings of the slaves are told; the maddened blood that mounts the boys' cheeks is not Democratic blood.

THE CURSE OF SLAVERY HAS POISONED THE BLOOD AND ROTTED ITS BONE.

The curse of slavery has poisoned the blood and rotted its bone. Its defeat may not be attributed to any other cause. Other causes were at work—but they were incidental. The tariff was one. Sectionalism was a second. "Let well enough alone" was third. But all these were trivial, and together could not have accomplished the result. The result was accomplished because the youth of the Republic is not Democratic. That party is, therefore, without a future and without a hope. The malediction of the war has palsied its brains. The curse of slavery has poisoned its blood and rotted its bone.

ALL RIGHT YET.

Notwithstanding, the Republican defeat in Ohio the House of Representatives is not yet lost. The election so far held shows the following result:

	R.	D.
Oregon.....	1	—
Vermont.....	3	—
Maine.....	4	—
Ohio.....	13	18
West Virginia.....	2	1
Total.....	17	14

As yet the Republicans are three ahead. The election of Powning may be necessary for us to retain control of the lower branch of Congress. Let every Republican remember this.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

The Oregon Senatorship.
NEW YORK, October 23.

The Times in an editorial says: The defeat of Mitchell is a matter for congratulation. Not only is it true of him that his personal history has been blotted with discreditable episodes, but it is also true that he represents the worst elements of bossism, and his failure to grasp the prize of Senatorship is another evidence of the strength of the popular revolt of that force in American politics of which Mitchell is a fair example. Dolph has his national reputation yet to make. The other two candidates—Mitchell and Williams—lost their reputations long ago.

The World's Washington correspondent says: The result of the Oregon Senatorial election has surprised and disappointed Stalwarts here, and rumor includes the President among the disappointed. While not much had been said here about the election, it is now known that it was confidently thought that Mitchell would be chosen. The dead-lock seems to have been anticipated, but it was finally to end in accordance with an understood plan. Such doubt as had existed early in the struggle was removed by assurances that Mitchell had secured enough support for a final rally to carry him through. This assurance of his chances is said to have cost him $3,000. Just how the dead-lock was broken has not been learned, but it is supposed the Democratic efforts to adjourn the Legislature were in the way of being seconded by enough Republicans to carry that motion, and the choice was forced upon others of selecting some one who had not been in the race or of leaving the State with but one Senator for the next two years.

The Chinese in Canada.
NEW YORK, October 23.

The Herald's Toronto correspondent says: The Chinese question is beginning to loom up in Canada as one of political and social consequence. The importation of several thousand Chinese into British Columbia to work as navvies on the Canadian Pacific railroad has aroused much feeling among trades unions, which at a meeting here on Saturday night passed resolutions strongly condemnatory of John Chinaman being allowed the countenance of the government or its contractors, and urging the prohibition of Chinese immigration. In this city, until lately, the number of Chinese was very small and as the laundry business was the only one which suffered from their competition there was no complaint. Lately the restrictions placed upon their immigration into the United States have drawn considerable numbers to Toronto. The other day some of them, in attempting to pass through the United States, ostensibly on their way to the celestial empire, were met by obstacles at the suspension bridge from an American official which induced them to return. The Young Men's Christian Association recently organized a class for their instruction in English and in the Christian faith. John did not at first respond to the efforts to raise him socially and morally, but within a few days the personal solicitations of members of the association resulted in securing a class of over 20, who appear to take kindly to the barbarian methods of education, no doubt in hopes of reaping pecuniary benefits.

The Professional Tramps.
NEW YORK, October 22.

The six-days-go-as-you-please pedestrian contest began at Madison Square Garden at midnight. Word was given by Edward Hanlan, the well-known carman. The contestants are Charles Rowel, George Hazel, P. J. Fitzgerald, John Hughes, George D. Noremack,

Frank Hart, Dan J. Hertz, and P. J. Panchot. At 1 o'clock the record was as follows: Hazel, Hart and Hughes, 8 miles and five laps; Rowel 8 miles, 3 laps; Hertz, 3 miles, 3 laps; Noremack, 8 miles, 3 laps; Fitzgerald, 8 miles 3 laps. The best record in the same time was made by George Littlewood, 9 miles and 1,395 yards.

NEW YORK, October 23.

At 9 o'clock this morning the score stood: Noremack, 54 miles; Rowel, 62; Hart, 56; Hertz, 54; Fitzgerald, 54; Panchot, 54; Vint, 49.

At 12 o'clock to-day the score stood: Hughes 104, Hazen 100, Rowel 93, Noremack 89, Hart 90, Fitzgerald 88, Hertz 85, Panchot 84, Vint 73.

Anniversary of the Landing of William Penn.
PHILADELPHIA, October 22.

To-morrow night 1,000 Germans will assemble in front of Independence Hall and sing appropriate songs. At midnight the State House bell will announce landing day. Preparations for its observance are made on an elaborate scale. Wednesday, trades day, will be given over to a parade of industries of the city and State. In the evening will be a street representation of scenes in the life and career of Penn, and the reception at the Academy of Music closes the ceremonies of that day. Thursday is Knights Templar's day and Friday military day. Seven thousand Templars and 2,000 troops are expected to parade. Regattas, chorus singing, meeting of bicyclists, unveiling of statues, etc., make up other exercises.

CHESTER, Pa., October 23.

The bi-centennial celebration to-day is a grand success. Nearly every building is resplendent with flags, bunting and various appropriate decorations, giving the city a holiday appearance. At least 200,000 visitors are present, and the streets are so thronged as to be almost impassable. Among the guests are a large number of distinguished gentlemen, including Governor Hoyt and Attorney-General Letta, the Mayors of cities in this State, Delaware and New Jersey, and a large number of representative gentlemen from Philadelphia and New York. The day was ushered in by the bells of the city, each bell tolling 200 strokes.

McDowell's Successor.
WASHINGTON, October 22.

Army officers here say, with regard to the vacant Major-Generalship, that General Pope will probably be appointed to succeed McDowell, retired. As this appointment must be confirmed by the Senate, some apprehension is felt by General Pope's friends that if nominated his confirmation may be made by Democratic Senators. It is said Republicans will be opposed to his confirmation because of his action in the Fitz-John Porter case. At least two Republican Senators, Sewell of New Jersey and Kellogg of Louisiana, are said to be hostile to Pope for other reasons.

Politics in Colorado.
WASHINGTON, October 22.

Dr. Bliss has recently returned from the West. He says the split in the Republican ranks in Colorado is similar to that in New York and Pennsylvania, and that Democrats will carry the State. Secretary Teller, who started last night for Colorado to take part in the fight, says that, despite the dissensions, the Republican ticket will be elected.

The President Grieved.
WASHINGTON, October 23.

President Arthur is said to feel acutely what he regards as his desertion by certain leading stalwarts. A short time ago Grant took occasion to declare that he was out of politics. This has been followed by a similar declaration said to be authorized by Conkling. Reports are in circulation about the dropping of others who would be expected to stand by the President and speak a good word for his administration.

New Road Opened.
CHICAGO, October 23.

The first regular train over the New York, Chicago & St. Louis nickel-plated road left this city at 8 o'clock this morning for Cleveland. The road has been declared formally opened for business.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

French Foolishness.
LYONS, October 23.

There was a riotous demonstration against the municipality here yesterday in consequence of their having suppressed the subvention to the opera. The police were unable to cope with the crowd. There was an alarming explosion in a restaurant attached to the theater. Two heavy reports were heard under the table. There were 200 people in the restaurant who rushed hurriedly into the street. A third and more formidable explosion occurred, which shattered tables, mirrors and other articles, and seriously injured three persons. Three men who entered the restaurant ten minutes before the explosion left a small box under the table.

Loosen Items.

[From the Advocate of the 18th.]

New buildings are going up in all directions.

Carpenters are in great demand here at present.

The primary department of the Sossanville schools commenced last Monday.

F. G. Ward of this place has received the appointment of Receiver of Public Moneys of the Sossanville Land Office, vice G. W. Meylert, resigned.

There is a scarcity of lumber at the various saw mills in this section. The demand since the fire has been so great that it is almost impossible to fill the orders.

As Dr. M. Chamberlin was at work on the new building now being erected by W. P. Hall on the north side of Main street, yesterday morning, he was taken with a fainting spell and fell, a distance of 12 feet, to the ground. He was on a ladder, in the act of nailing up a scaffold, when the spell came on, and fell between the joist of the upper floor, striking square on his head on the lower ones. He was picked up and carried to his room, where he soon came to consciousness, and up to this time is doing nicely. No bones were broken, but a long, deep gash was cut on his head.

Truckee Items.

[Truckee Republican October 21.]

Hunting in the vicinity of Webber lake is said to be unusually good this year. Wild ducks and geese are plentiful on the lake, and the quail and grouse hunting is equally as good.

Don Cameron is the name of the conductor who has taken the passenger train between Truckee and Winnemucca, in place of B. F. Sargent.

It is estimated that 160 tons of butter have been made by the dairymen in this section so far this season. The butter is said to be of a superior quality, and commands the highest prices at San Francisco and Sacramento.

From May 1st to Oct. 31st a daily mail is carried between Truckee and Tahoe City. From Nov. 1st, until April 30th a tri-weekly mail is carried on showboats when not otherwise practicable. It leaves every Monday and alternates during the week. During the summer the steamer carries the mail around the lake daily, Sundays excepted, and in winter once a week.

Repairs Needed.

The plank sidewalk on Virginia street, toward the bridge, is much in need of repair. There are holes in it which may cause serious injury to some unfortunate pedestrian, and then somebody will have to pay damages. It should be seen to at once. A lady fell into one of the traps last night and was considerably bruised.

Cherry Whisky.

The choke cherries found along the river make a healthy and pleasant bitters when mixed with whisky or wine. They are used a good deal by dyspeptics and others. Mr. Logan of Boca was the discoverer of the fact.

Change in Siding.

The Pacific Coast Stage Company has purchased the line running between Bieber and Susanville, and will restock the road with fine animals and Concord coaches.

AN ART ILLUSTRATION.

Party Politics and Pretenses Abridged Saturday Night.

The nationals claim that the national banks pay no taxes. Hon. C. S. Varian in his speech on Saturday evening showed that the Silver Star Mills, which have about $40,000 invested, pay $405 taxes to the State and county. The First National Bank has $75,000 invested and pays over $2,500 in taxes, State, county and internal revenues. Mr. Varian reviewed the history of this county since the days of 1860 and made a masterly argument for the policy of the party. He showed how the protective tariff came into existence for the protection of American poor men, and reviewed the struggle between the Democratic opposition to internal improvements and the Republicans in favor of it. He showed the wisdom of the river and harbor bill, which appropriates $8,000,000 for the improvement of the Mississippi, the great natural highway of the nation, which affords an outlet to the labors of 80,000,000 of people. It is the greatest anti-monopolist and is the greatest opposition the railroads have to contend with. The State of Illinois produces a million car-loads of food per year. By the improvement of the river all this produce is got to market at the lowest possible rate where, if the railroads had no opposition, they would charge all it would bear. He thought Mr. Cassidy need not apologize for voting for such a bill in opposition to his Democratic colleagues, but only for forgetting to get some help for his own helpless State. He showed up in a most convincing style the inconsistencies and sham pretenses of the Democratic party. The meeting was well attended.

New Cigar Store.

Adam Nelson has opened a cigar store opposite M. Nathan's clothing house on Virginia street, and has a very fine stock of cigars, tobacco, cigarettes, and goods usually found in a store of that kind. Almost two years ago Mr. Nelson had the misfortune to break his leg while at work in the Jones & Kinkead mine at Pyramid. Since that time he has suffered enough to kill twenty men. His physician found it necessary to break and reset the injured limb several times, and Adam has spent the greater part of the time for nearly two years in his bed. He has sufficiently recovered now to do a little business, and is a young man in every way worthy the confidence of everyone. If smokers will give him a trial they will find him a pleasant gentleman to do business with, and will be well pleased with the treatment they will receive at his hands. Read his advertisement and give him a call.

A Good Fight.

The Battle Mountain Messenger says: Hon. C. C. Powning is making a good campaign fight over the state. He is a good logical reasoner; makes good points, and is going to win; the assertions of Democratic papers to the contrary notwithstanding. The only argument now used against him is that he wears a blue shirt. This accusation, as well as that harped upon for some time by the Virginia Chronicle, that he was a "rat" printer, is gaining for him votes. The blue shirt boy is the one for the state. His clear and pointed ideas as to the "Battle Born State's" needs are gaining strength and popularity every day with the people.

At the Nevada Theater.

The Chicago Times of Aug. 29th has this to say of the pantomime company advertised to appear here Wednesday evening: "Andrews & Stockwell's Ideal Pantomime and Star Specialty Company achieved an unequivocal and thoroughly well deserved success at the Olympic Theater last evening. They give a deeply and continuously interesting performance vastly different from ordinary pantomime companies. From the very first act to the close of the programme the attention of the audience was entirely given to the stage performance." The box sheet is now open and seats can be reserved. The company is sure to have a crowded house.

Nevada Rifle Shots.

The Carson Guard rifle team left last night for Oakland to take part in the shooting tournament which takes place in that city next Saturday. The team is composed of the following bullseye punchers: James Crawford, Geo. Thaxter, John Saffell, W. M. Little, George Cowing and W. S. Haskins. Mr. Crawford is captain of the team. The National Guard also sent a team.

Roll of Honor.

Following is the roll of honor of Bishop Whitaker's school for the month ending October 18, 1893: Kittie Grippen 99.3, Armenia Grippen 99.1, Louise Sissa 98, Cora Manning 98.7, Bessie Boardman 98.5, Emily Cutting 98, Annie Franklin 96.4, Clara Blakelee 96.3.

Last Man Department.

W. L. Thomas of Eureka wishes to know the whereabouts of his brother-in-law, Henry Langdon. The last time he heard of him he was in Bodie Cal. This was about a year and a half ago. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received by the above.

The planing machines and other apparatus which went through the fire at Verdell will be brought to Fraser's foundry to be overhauled and repaired.

Saloon-keepers say the campaign business is very flimsy. In fact, its dullness is exasperating to those who hoped to gather at least a moderate harvest.

A woolen horse blanket and halter have been lost on the road between Burke's house and Derby's ranch on the Glendale and Virginia road. The finder will please leave them at Hymer's stable.

The Wine House is headquarters for all political parties. Phil will not refuse any party or any candidate the cheering beverages, whether elected or defeated. He will kiss both cheeks all the same.

Chinese have started another exodus to the Eastern States. Let 'em go. Every day the emigrant train takes away some of them, and not a few go on the regular express, showing that they have more money to travel with than some white folks.

Lively at the Front.

There are lively times at the southern end of the Carson & Colorado road. Ties, rails and other material are being sent there in endless quantities. The road is going ahead as fast as possible, to intersect the Southern Pacific, something more than 300 miles south of Reno.

Lots of Business.

The carrying trade of the Central Pacific railroad is so great just now that they have not enough freight cars for transportation. The road is called upon for more cars to handle the wheat crop of California than it can supply.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to return thanks to Louis Dean for finding and returning my watch lost a few weeks since. I advertised my watch and offered a reward for its return, but Mr. Dean refused to accept anything from me. J. M. Thompson.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

San Francisco, October 22.

A Citizen's special from Wilcox says: In a drunken row at this place to-day a soldier named Frisbie shot and instantly killed a fellow soldier by the name of Manion. They were both members of the Third Cavalry and had been good friends previous to the shooting. The murderer is under arrest.

A Desperate Deserter.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 23. A Healdsburg dispatch says that City Marshal Field attempted to arrest Henry Decortaz, deserter from the army. He made a successful resistance, firing several shots. Sergeant White met with no better success, but reinforced by Sergeant Whalen and a squad, he made a second attempt, when Decortaz emptied his revolver without effect and was shot dead.
